Romans 8:8-11
Dead from Sin, Alive with Spirit

As Lent nears its end, we become more mindful of our sins. We have promised to renew our hearts throughout this season. We have accepted a spirit of penitence. The elect, who are preparing for baptism at Easter, have received our prayers in scrutiny rites that purify their intentions and turn their hearts more firmly towards Christ.

But at this stage of Lent, we may be even more aware of our sin. Perhaps we have not been completely faithful to our Lenten resolutions. Perhaps we feel more strongly the difficult challenge to overcome bad habits that have taken years to form. Lent offers promise, but it sometimes causes discouragement.

Sin is no stranger to the human condition. But sin is not our natural condition. Through baptism, we are children of God.

St. Paul tells the Romans not to feel disappointed by their experience of sin, because the Spirit of God is much more powerful. "If Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the spirit is alive because of righteousness."

God's Spirit raised Jesus from the dead. The same Spirit dwells within us. The same Spirit gives life to our bodies prone to death.

If Lent has made us more aware of our sin, it should also make us more aware of God's love. God's Spirit reaches us, holds us, and lifts us high—in spite of our sin.

Please remember in your prayers....Olga Fougere, who passed away Sunday, March 11, 2018. Funeral mass was on Friday, March 16 in the parish.

Please also pray for Olga's family and all those who grieve the loss of a loved one.

Jn 11:1 - 45: The raising of Lazarus

Today's Gospel reading recounts another sign, or miracle, found in John's Gospel, the raising of Lazarus. As our catechumen moves closer to the celebration of her Baptisms at the Triduum, today's reading invites us to reflect upon what it means to call Jesus the Resurrection and the life. The Gospel today also calls us to reflect on Baptism as a dying and rising with Jesus. In Baptism we die to sin's power over us, rising as children of God. In Baptism we join ourselves with Christ, who conquered death once and for all so that we who believe in him may have eternal life. With Martha and Mary, we are called to profess our belief that Jesus is indeed the Resurrection and the life.

Tera Edkins, our catechumen, and Ted Kist, our candidate, will join us on this third and final Scrutiny this Sunday at the 11 am mass. Please continue to pray for Tera and Ted as they grow in faith.

In case you missed seeing the Saint John's Bible in our parish....

The parish now has a retail copy (a page-by-page reproduction) of the seven volumes of the Saint John's Bible! The books are on display in the narthex this weekend - please take a look at the beautiful calligraphy and illustrations. These seven volumes will stay in our parish library for everyone's inspiration and enjoyment. Thank you to Nick and Cindy Pizzi for this thoughtful donation to the parish!

Did you know? The Saint John's Bible reflects Benedictine values, particularly highlighting three themes: hospitality; conversion of life; and justice for God's people.

Are You New to St. Timothy? If so...welcome!

If you are new to our parish, we encourage you to register if you have not done so yet. Please complete a Parish Registration Form found by the office - it's bright pink. Either put the form in the collection basket or stop by the parish office during office hours - the staff would love to meet you!

Your donation envelopes will be set out by the parish office the following week in the box marked "NEW REQUESTS". Thank you!

Sacrament of Reconciliation
(Confession) Wednesday, March 21
beginning at 7:00 pm
We will have several priests available

Lent is a wonderful time to celebrate the reconciling love and the healing graces our Lord offers us. Reconciliation is what God does. We prepare for it by opening ourselves up, by reflecting upon the areas of darkness in our lives into which God so deeply desires to shine a light. It might begin with the simple question: Where might God be offering me forgiveness and healing?

Confession is also scheduled at St. Emile Parish on Friday, March 23 at 7 pm

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION
 Fifth Sunday of Lent - March 18, 2018
 – 5th Sunday of Lent: Sometimes, in the busyness of our daily lives, we can overlook the little miracles that take place every day. These occurrences do not have to be of the magnitude we see in the raising of Lazarus from the dead to recognize God at work. Our good and gracious God is working little miracles through us every day. The same Spirit that raised Lazarus from the dead dwells in us. What a gift! It is this same Spirit that activates the gifts each of us has received. Our willingness to steward our gifts, as God intends, creates opportunities for God's glory to shine in the little things we do every day.

Last week our Alpha guests watched a video "Does God Heal today?" and participated in a prayerful healing service in our worship space.

Last ALPHA Topic:

This Sunday will be Week 10 - our LAST Alpha session! We will share in a celebratory meal together followed by our final video, and more lively & deep discussions and fellowship!
